Research Instructions:

Use A.I., Google, Wikipedia, YouTube, or another reliable research tool to find examples and descriptions of the art-based careers you do not recognize.

As your research each career, answer the following questions:

1. In a short sentence or paraphrase, what does this career involve?
2. Give me a real-world example of this.
3. What is the expected salary or pay range for this career?
4. What steps are required to pursue this career?
5. What education, training, or experience is needed?

Educator Tip: Create on a shared document that students can all work on together so everyone can have access.
